

Organisation description

Muskwa Wild is a Dutch nature organization, founded by Koen de Louw en Raymond Dorgelo in 2009. Muskwa Wild's main target is:

Safeguarding the European brown bear (Ursus arctos arctos) and its habitat in the Romanian Carpathians.

Development and implementation of valuable projects is our prime contribution for our main target. A fine example of this is our Non Profit Bear/human Conflict Prevention project (www.muskwawild.eu under the projects tab). We execute this project together with local, specialist partners under the name: Muskwa Wildlife Projects, part of Predator Foundation EU Stichting Roofdier EU (www.roofdier.eu) and financed by WWF INNO.

As a professional organization Muskwa Wild offers the following features:

- ✿ Project advice, development and implementation regarding European wildlife conservation
- ✿ Organizing, offer and performing of nature/eco travel and excursions
- ✿ Developing and performing educational workshops, presentations en publications regarding wildlife conservation
- ✿ Coaching of students/volunteers in our wildlife conservation projects
- ✿ Sale of natural products en merchandise

When you have any kind of interest in our features: don't hesitate to contact us by addressing the contact information at the bottom of this document.
